COMMISSIONERS FAVOR ROAD.

Resolution Passed by Board of County
Commissioners Favoring Good
Road to County Seat.

The committee appointed by the Automobile Association and the Board of Trade appeared before the Board of County Commissioners Monday evening, in the interest of a hard road between Daytona and DeLand. Their report is published below, and shows the favorable light in which the commissioners viewed the matter:

Mr. Asa Paine, President F. E. C. A. A.

Sir:—We, the committee appointed by you to be present at the first meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, in January, 1906, have the honor to report as follows: We were cordially received by the Board in their meeting at the Court House, in DeLand, on the evening of January 1st, and the matter of the construction of the Daytona-DeLand road was fully and freely discussed, and we found a hearty spirit of co-operation manifest in the entire Board, and they showed their willingness to do all in their power to assist the undertaking. It is a matter of general information that the Road and

Items of Interest From the Progressive
Town Across the River.—Substantial Improvements Being Made.

If you want to keep posted on the local news that transpires at Daytona Beach and Seabreeze, subscribe for THE DAILY NEWS. This paper has made arrangements to give two or three budgets of news from these progressive towns each week. If you know of any items for our Daytona Beach department, telephone it them this office. Our number is 18.

A number of improvements are in progress at Daytona Beach, notably among them being the two-story building being erected for Mayor E. E. Johnson. It is being built of artificial stone, and will be pushed rapidly to completion. Dr. Van Valzah has Contractor Huff erecting a two-story building. The lower floor will be made for two stores, while the second story will be used as an apartment house.

The skating-rink at the Mario Casino opened today, much to the pleasure of most everyone. The rink will be open at all times during the day and every evening. There will be an orchestra in attendance. The young people are looking forward to the amusement with much interest. The regular Thursday evening dances will not begin before next week.

Alvin Aldridge, of Mount Vernon, Ind., who is spending the winter here, yesterday afternoon caught from the pier a 6-foot shark. It took two men to haul the monster ashore. A photo was taken of the big fish. Shark fishing is proving a great sport here now, and most every day parties try their luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Kurtz returned to DeLand Tuesday afternoon, after spending the holidays with the lady's mother, Mrs. Daugherty, at the Lone Bay House.

Mrs. George B. Woodward and her son, P. Stanley Woodward, of Louisville, after spending the past week at the New Seaside, returned to DeLand yesterday afternoon. The young man is a student at Stetson University.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rushton and Mr. and Mrs. S. Henney, of Bellevue, O., have taken half of Mrs. Allan's cottage.

for the winter. They are very agreeable people and are quite an addition to the social colony.

A number of the little girls from Daytona Beach, and Seabreeze were, this afternoon, in attendance at a birthday party given for Miss Violet Middleton.

About twenty-five of the young people went to the old Spanish sugar mills, below Port Orange, on New Year's Day, and there enjoyed a picnic. An auto bus was chartered, but could not convey all of the party, so others followed on bicycles. They returned about dark, and every one fortunate enough to be present report a fine day.

George A. Anicker, of Peoria, Ill., arrived Monday, and has resumed his clerkship at the New Seaside.

Mrs. Caroline Schud, and daughter, of Kimball, O., are among the recent arrivals. They have taken a cottage for the season.

The Book Social held at the M. E. parsonage, Daytona Beach, on New Year's night, under the auspices of the Epworth League, proved to be a very delightful affair. A large crowd was in attendance. The main feature of the evening was that all who attended were requested to represent some book, either by decoration of dress, costume or action. A large number of books were represented, and some in a very unique manner, causing much enjoyment. A short literary program was rendered. A silver offering was taken, and a neat sum added to the treasury. All declared having a very enjoyable evening.

FIRST RACING CAR COMES.

■ ■ ■

Owned by George W. Young and Handled by the Southern Express Company—Many Coming.

Tuesday's Jacksonville Times-Union says:

One handsome, queerly constructed racing machine and one elegant touring car arrived in Jacksonville yesterday morning in a Pennsylvania Railway horse and carriage car from Long Branch, N. J., enroute to Ormond.

The machines were handled by the Southern Express Company and were filled to George W. Young. Another car filled with furniture also arrived from the same place, filled to Mr. Young. This car was handled by the Southern Express Company also.

The racing machine is the first to arrive in Jacksonville enroute to Ormond to participate in the races.

Several other racing machines are expected to arrive here today on the Clyde Line steamer, Comanche, from New York. According to the following from New York, under date of December 29, two of the famous racers are on the Clyde steamer and others are coming:

"The vanguard of the racing automobileists, who will be seen next month in the record-breaking speed contests on the Ormond-Daytona beach course, left yesterday for Florida. Cedrino and Fletcher took with them three of the 110-horsepower cars that competed in the last Vanderbilt cup race, and in addition the 24-horsepower car that holds most of the records for cars of its class and weight.

"It was also announced definitely yesterday that Lancia, the hero of the Vanderbilt cup race, would sail for this country tomorrow from Havre on the French Line steamer, La Touraine. He is bringing with him a new racing car of 110-horsepower, and this one will try to win the special prize offered for the two-mile-a-minute rate."

A BIG MEETING MAY BE HELD.

Lewis and Kitchens Representatives Will Try to be Here Friday.—Waterworks to be Discussed.

If the representative of Lewis & Kitchens, of Chicago, can arrive here Friday afternoon, a meeting of the City Council and Board of Trade will be held, and the question of discussing the contemplated improvements in the way of installing a waterworks and sewerage system will be discussed.

President Harris, of the City Council, early in the week received a letter from Lewis & Kitchen, stating that their representative would be here Saturday, but Mr. Harris found that it would be useless to attempt to secure a meeting for Saturday evening, so he wired the firm that if their Mr. Smith, their representative could come Friday, that they would be pleased to have him. President Harris says that in the event a meeting is held, he wants every man in town to be present, and say what they think regarding the contemplated improvements.

A Daily News representative, in his rounds recently, has heard many visitors express their surprise on finding that Daytona was not equipped with these modern improvements.

Notice.

Fred Smith left yesterday for DeLand to resume his studies in the University.

Misses Mabel and Bessie Carter, accompanied by Miss Rush, left yesterday on a visit to Port Orange.

*The animal den, on South Beach Street, will open next week for visitors. The place has a large number of attractions, and will be well worth a visit. 3-11

A Poem for Today

THE THREE FISHERS

By Charles Kingsley

CHARLES KINGSLEY was born in Devonshire in 1819. He died in 1875. He went to Magdalen College, where he studied for the ministry. Kingsley was made rector of Eversley (1841) and was an earnest advocate of social reform. His "Alton Locke" gives his views on this question. His best known prose writings are "Hypatia," "Westward Ho!" and "Water Babies." His poetical works consist of "The Saint's Tragedy" and "Andromeda and Other Poems."

THREE fishers went sailing out into the west—
Out into the west as the sun went down.
Each thought on the woman who loved him the best,
And the children stood watching them out of the town;

For men must work, and women must weep,
And there's little to earn and money to keep,

Though the harbor bar be moaning.

Three wives sat up in the lighthouse tower,
And they trimmed the lamps as the sun went down;
They looked at the squall, and they looked at the shower,
And the night rack came rolling up rugged and brown!

But men must work, and women must weep,
Though storms be sudden and waters deep

And the harbor bar be moaning.

Three corpses lay out on the shining sands
In the morning gleam as the tide went down,
And the women are weeping and wringing their hands
For those who will never come back to the town.

For men must work, and women must weep,

And the sooner it's over the sooner to sleep
And goodby to the bar and its moaning.

A Poem for Today

TOUJOURS AMOUR

By Edmund Clarence Stedman

P RITHIEK, tell me, Dimple-Chin,
At what age does Love begin?
Your blue eyes have scarcely seen
Summer three, my fairy queen,
But a miracle of sweets,
Soft approaches, sly retreats,
Show the little archer there,
Hidden in your pretty hair.

When didst learn a heart to win?
Prithee, tell me, Dimple-Chin!

"Oh!" the rosy lips reply,
"I can't tell you if I try;

"Tis so long I can't remember.

Ask some younger sage than I!"

Tell, oh, tell me, Grizzled-Face,
Do your heart and head keep pace?
When does hoary Love expire?
When do frosts put out the fire?
Can its embers burn below
All that chill December snow?
Care you still soft hands to press,
Bony heads to smooth and blesse?
When does Love give up the chase?
Tell, oh, tell me, Grizzled-Face!

"Ah," the wise old lips reply,

"Youth may pass and strength may die;

But of Love I can't foretoken.

Ask some older sage than I!"

A LIBERAL EDUCATION.
Professor Hawley held this opinion as to what constitutes a liberal education:

The man has a liberal education who has been so trained in youth that his body is the ready servant of his will and does with ease and pleasure all the work that as a mechanism it is capable of; whose intellect is a clear, cold, logical engine, with all its parts of equal strength and in smooth working order, ready like the steam engine, to be turned to any kind of work and spin the gossamers as well as forge the anchors of the mind; whose mind is stored with a knowledge of the great and fundamental truths of nature and of the laws of her operations; one who no stunted ascetic, is full of life and fire, but whose passions are trained to come to half by a vigorous will, the servant of a tender conscience; who has learned to love all beauty, whether of nature or of art, to hate all vileness and to respect others as himself. Such a one, and no other, has had a liberal education.

A SPOOL OF THREAD.
To make a spool of thread, says a manufacturer, is a complicated process. Only the very best cotton can be used for this purpose. The cotton is taken in the raw state and torn all to pieces by a machine called a breaker. It then goes through several other machines by which it is carefully combed and freed from impurities. A machine called a spinner takes it up and twists it out into soft white yarn. This is carefully combed again, and it is taken into another department, where several small strands of this yarn are twisted into one fine line. Three of these are twisted together, and you then have six cord thread, which, after it is bleached, is ready for the market.

Next to excellence is the appreciation of it.—Thackeray.

Some Boston Guests.
The Hotel Fellman was the first French apartment house, or rather, they have now come to call the same, opened in the United States, at old Bostonian. At that time the Dr. Dix, who owned the property, had returned from a European trip, where he got the idea. Upon his return he brought it with him, and the Fellman was continued to spread until it has gained all over the country. Another thing that you may have forgotten is the fact that the Parker House was the first hotel in the United States to be conducted on the European plan. It was a Boston hotel, the American or the Revere—I forget just which one it was—that the elevator was first introduced.

The Echoes of Eagle's Nest.
The most wonderful echo in the known world is that heard from the Eagle's Nest in the lake regions of Ireland. The rock known as "Eagle's Nest" is the most prominent peak to be found among the heights that surround the Killarney Lakes. Its apex is 1,250 feet above the surface of the water, and the extraordinary echo is heard to the best advantage from a spot 100 feet to the right from an opening called the Devil's Mouth. At that point the effect of the reflected sounds is also intensely startling, the slightest whisper being repeated as often as 1,000 times. The rebound is always clear and distinct and appears to come from the crags, cliffs and peaks which surround the experimenter on all sides.

A Batch of Bulls.
There are several interesting bulls in the following serious paragraph from the Western News of Galway, Ireland: "To rob a man of his purse and then maltreat him for not having it would be muster among pitiless brutal crimes, but to kill and slay a man to the point of death and then murder him for not dying quick enough is one point better in the catalogue of human infamy. It is enough to make Irishmen set their teeth and talk silent in groups."

Commissioners Favor Road.

City Councils of all the towns of the county will enter into a written agreement with the Board to waive all rights said towns might have to said special road tax, and consent that all monies so collected shall be spent by the Board on the county roads outside the incorporations."

In this connection it was unofficially suggested that if this action was favorable and such levy was made, which would yield about $10,000 a year, warrants could be issued against the collection of said fund, and work commenced immediately after levy is made, that the said Club will bind itself to pay the interest until the tax is collected on the amounts spent on the Daytona-DeLand road.

We would further recommend that the Club appoint a committee to act in conjunction with a committee from the DeLand Board of Trade and one from the Daytona Board of Trade, to secure the required written waivers from the several Councils of the towns in the County, and get the matter in legal and working shape to go to the Board of County Commissioners.

In closing this report we would state that we went to DeLand in an automobile and found most of the road in fair shape, but some holes are bad and as soon as there is a sufficient number of prisoners to make it worth while, the Board proposes to put them at work on the Daytona-DeLand road to fix the worst places.

The above is our full report and we would respectfully ask if possible the Club's favorable action and that we your committee be discharged.

Respectfully Submitted,
J. W. Wilkinson,

1,000 Reporters!

The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.

In other words, The Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.

So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.

Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter The Daily News.

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its fairest expanse and midway between its source at Bulew Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29°, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are londly live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berryed holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amelanchier climb and cling among the branches forming shady bower and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. The river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues east run parallel with or intersect the river arm all 100 feet wide, except Beach street which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breeze from off the wide Atlantic, which tempers and renders the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well graded, macadamized and shaded roads and streets, rendering it the most attractive.

Wheelman's Paradise
and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivaled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built, are renderings Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights, for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesium and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the sun bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect a comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard macadamized, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is hard for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see small-ribbed bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbs tide measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, an venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty sea.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected or houses. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean end of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

The Kuklux Klan Ritual.
That only two copies of the Kuklux Klan ritual are known to exist is the statement of Thomas Dixon in the Metropolitan. One of them, he says, is in the library of Columbia college; the other is among the archives of Tennessee. It was the composition of General George W. Gordon of Memphis, and it began thus:

"This is an institution of chivalry, humanity, mercy and patriotism, embodying in its genius and its principles all that is chivalric in conduct, noble in sentiment, generous in manhood and patriotic in purpose."

Four Spiders to the Pound.
The lizard spider (Metus mygale) is the largest species of venomous spider known. He is of a bright yellow-color with three red stripes on his back and a crescent of pure black on the abdomen. Full grown specimens of the lizard spider (so called because their chief food is small lizards, frogs, etc.) measure four inches across the back and have legs ten inches long. Four full grown males collected by a British exploring expedition weighed one pound four ounces. This giant of the spider family is a native of Cayena.
